The Daily Oregonian.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true;
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 1863.

The News.

No dispatch was received last night. We notice however, some items in the San Francisco papers of last Monday not before published by us:

Washington papers of May 28th state that the forts remaining in possession of the rebels at Vicksburg are very formidable and command the entire town. Several charges have been made upon them, but with little success. The rebels seem to think their position impregnable. The report that Pemberton offered to surrender on terms is confirmed. Banks is said to be rapidly approaching Vicksburg.

Wm. M. Evarts, Esq., of New York, now in England as a special Government agent, reports that he feels assured that the British Government will, in good faith do its best, to prevent the sailing of rebel pirates.

The New York Herald's special from Washington says that Gen. Stone, has been assigned to duty under Gen. Banks.

The report of the removal of Victor Smith from the Puget Sound Collectorship is not officially confirmed. Perhaps the story was one of Dr. Henry's romances—like his report as Deputy Surveyor to Col. Tilton, when he run with the Democracy!

APPROPRIATIONS FOR FORTIFICATIONS IN OREGON AND WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—By the act of Congress of 20th February, 1862, the fortification bill provided one hundred thousand dollars for defences in Oregon and Washington Territory, at or near the mouth of the Columbia river, "if in the opinion of the President the same or any part thereof should be advisable." By the fortification bill passed 20th February, 1863, two hundred thousand dollars are appropriated for "defensive works in Oregon and Washington Territory."

Capt. G. H. Elliott, of the Corps of Engineers, who made a survey and report last summer on the defences needed at the mouth of the Columbia, is now ordered to commence their construction.

It is gratifying to find the Government at last aroused to the importance and duty of beginning such defences. We are assured that Gen. Alvord, from the moment he was placed in command, has not ceased to press upon the authorities at Washington the urgent necessity of such steps being taken, representing the fact that the population and commerce of the country were rapidly increasing, and justly demanded the attention of the War Department.

FROM FLORENCE.—We were permitted yesterday, to read a letter from the above locality, written by an entirely reliable gentleman there, who says that the prospects of the miners in that vicinity are highly encouraging and even brilliant. "Two men in one day took out one hundred and three ounces of dust."—Wages were high: men would not work for less than $150 00 per month, and there was a spirit of confidence in the mining resources of the region far beyond what has heretofore been entertained.

Another British privateer of the Alabama stripe, named the Virginia, sailed from the Clyde on the 7th ult., and is probably now on the ocean way-laying and burning our ships. The day after she sailed the British Government issued orders for her detention; but it was too late. She had a full crew shipped in Liverpool, and it is believed that she laid off the coast of France until a full armament and a supply of ammunition was put on board of her from vessels sent to her from England.

CALIFORNIA AND OREGON RAILROAD CO.—A preliminary organization was made at Marysville on the 1st inst., and the following gentlemen are a part of the Board of Directors:—Gov. A. C. Gibbs of Portland, I. R. Moores of Salem, S. Ellsworth of Eugene City, and J. C. Tolman of Jacksonville. The parties concerned seem to have enlisted in the enterprise with great energy. We hope they will "roll it along" successfully and speedily.

SENATOR CONESS.—At a late demonstration in Petaluma of the Union men, a letter from John Conness was read. The following is an extract:

Mere party names have lost their former significance in view of the national crisis.—We are all Democrats—Republicans; but better than all, we are Americans pledged to one undivided nationality. The heresy of a superior duty to States is fast passing away. The independence of States, in their local, provincial and municipal capacities, is rendered only the more secure by strengthening, consolidating and elevating the national dignity. The duty of citizens to States is to maintain these in their local and municipal character. The duty of citizens to the nation is to maintain its supremacy over States and its rank among nations forever and ever.—These things are becoming better understood, and notwithstanding the threatened disintegration, the mind of the nation is tending to centralization and unity more than ever before. Out of all this our country will have a new birth. Neither morality nor poetry will be brought to shame by the product. It will not be a human bound by shackles, nor writhing beneath the lash; but it will be Liberty enshrined in beauty, akin to godliness, beckoning to the nations that this is her home.

Company "A," Oregon Militia.

PORTLAND, June 5th, 1863.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Sir: Under the late militia law, passed by the last legislature, there has been a number of companies organized, and quite a military movement is going on in our midst, which is a sure indication that our young and growing State is loyal to the core. Among those which have been formed and are ready for service, I shall mention the one from Multnomah county, entitled, Co. "A," 1st Regiment 2d Brigade Independent Militia, State of Oregon, and commanded by Capt. W. S. Powell. On the 1st, 2d, and 3d inst., this company mustered in the vicinity of No. 3 School house, on the Columbia Bottom, and had a three days' encampment, in accordance with the above-mentioned law. I had the pleasure of being present and witnessing the exercises, and was somewhat astonished at their efficiency and soldierly bearing, especially so, as it was their first drill. Too much cannot be said in their praise. The men seemed to be thoroughly interested in the welfare of the company, and their general deportment won the highest praise from all spectators. The company numbers at present sixty-two men, who hold themselves in readiness to march at a moment's notice, in the defence of our country.

The officers evinced a thorough knowledge of military tactics, and are loved and respected by all the men. Brigadier General Coffin was present for a few hours, and appeared very much pleased with all that passed. Several other citizens of Portland were also present. The next muster of this company will be largely attended by visitors. CRITIC.

CHARLESTON.—A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Hilton Head, (S. C.,) April 15th, says:

Four deserters from the rebel camps near Savannah, came within our lines yesterday.—They state that in the engagement between the iron clad fleet and the Charleston Forts, Fort Sumter was breached in several places, and many of the rebel gunners put hors de combat. They also state that at one time the rebel commander at Fort Sumter (General Ripley) telegraphed to Charleston that there was a possibility of our iron clad fleet forcing the obstructions. This announcement created a panic in Charleston, and all the citizens and a large number of soldiers ran away from the city, beyond the range of Yankee shell. During the naval engagement the rebel land forces were kept under arms, and were anxiously watching several points from which they expected to see the Union troops emerge. From a tall tree on Folly Island one of these men saw the troops on James Island. He judged, from the several points at which they were stationed, that there were at least twenty thousand men on that island alone. No doubt they were as numerous on other islands. He also counted from his lookout no less than twenty-two rebel earth fortifications on James, John's and Morris Islands.

There are three lines of obstructions in Charleston harbor. The first consists of a chevaux de frieze, made of palmetto logs and chain cable. The logs are sharpened at the end and capped with iron, the points just below the surface of the water and at an inclination of forty-five degrees. This line extends from Fort Sumter to Fort Moultrie. The second line is about fifty yards in the rear of the first, and consists of one immense chain cable, placed a few feet below the surface of the water, buoyed up at intervals by large square buoys. The third line of obstructions consists of sunken blocks made of palmetto logs, filled in with stone or other weighty material. The channel parts of these obstructions are so arranged that the rebel vessels can pass through them. When they are closed at night, or in case of an attack, these channel ways and obstructions have infernal machines attached to them.

GEN. BRAGG'S REPORT OF THE BATTLE OF STONE RIVER.—A correspondent of the Charleston Courier says that Gen. Bragg's official report of the battle of Stone river "censures Gen. Hardee for general mismanagement, and reflects severely upon Gen. Breckinridge; indeed, that such is its remarkable character that it must necessarily bring about a court of inquiry in the premises." A letter from Bragg's army about this report, says:

"Gen. Breckinridge is charged with total incompetency, and blamed with the miscarriage of the battle; Gen. Cheatham with being inebriated on the field in the presence of the enemy. Gen. Hardee is censured with slowness and inaction; Gen. McCown and command with the disobedience of orders. Gen. Polk's name is not mentioned in the report. Generals Claiborn and Withers are complimented. The highest tribute of praise and honor is paid to General Withers and command, awarding him the credit of having saved the day by the courage, discipline and soldierly bearing of the officers and men of his division."

This correspondent says, "Oh! Bragg, you will be damned for the telling the truth."

A REBEL APPEAL.—The Richmond Examiner, says:

Now, if ever, is the time to plant the corn that alone can carry the Confederacy through the trial of this year. Yet many plant seed tobacco, which they think will not be impressed, and which is worth much money. We would say a word to them. If the country cannot supply the army with provisions during this summer, the army can't remain in Virginia. If it leaves Virginia, it must be given up to the Yankees, who will appropriate not only tobacco, contraband of war, but seize everything else that we have, and reduce the country to a wilderness. If the Legislature adjourns without prohibiting the culture of tobacco, and requiring the officers of the law to destroy every leaf which they find growing for twelve months to come, the chance of this State is indeed poor.

TAXATION IN VIRGINIA.—A bill before the Virginia Legislature, proposed by the Finance Committee, levies a tax on all incomes of $500 and upward, ranging from five to fifteen per cent. Joint stock companies are assessed ten to sixteen per cent. of dividends and reserved funds. Each farmer, after reserving for his own use one hundred bushels of corn and thirty bushels of wheat produced this year, shall pay and deliver to the Confederate Government one tenth of the grain, forage, sugar, cotton, tobacco or wool produced. Also one-tenth of the hogs slaughtered by him, in cured bacon. On the value of all neat cattle, horses, mules and asses, one per cent. What would our people say to such taxation?

BOUGHT UP AGAIN.—We observe that the opposition are already complaining that in Connecticut, as in Rhode Island, their voters were bought up so as to turn the scale against them. What a very mercenary and unprincipled party theirs must be, if we are to judge from what they themselves say, of it, since it can even be hired to vote against itself!—Suicide is nothing compared with such conduct.

The report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, with the testimony appended, makes a volume of over 3,000 pages of solid matter, document size, the printing of which is just now about completed. Who'll ever read it?

Miscellaneous Paragraphs.

The soldiers in the vicinity of Corinth, Miss., are marrying the females thereabouts, with the limitation added to the contract, "while the war lasts." It is a question whether these little treaties of peace are conducive to a brief war.

James T. Brady said in one of his speeches that the Copperheads decorate their persons with a coin valued at one cent, because that is a fair estimate of the value of their principles. He thought, however, injustice was done to the cent.

If we do not have the best artillery in the world before the war is over, it won't be from a dearth of invention. Mr. Ericsson, of New York, proposes to the Government to make six wrought iron guns, thirteen inch calibre, at $30,000 for each gun. Mr. Robt. McCarty, of New York, has also proposed to build a ten-inch gun to throw by centrifugal force, from thirty to fifty shot, shell, or hot shot, per minute—the price of each gun to be from $25,000 to $30,000.—Albany Journal.

Fernando Wood in his last infamous speech attempted to prove his patriotism by saying that he had raised a regiment at his own expense. The officers of the regiment referred to, the 40th New York, hearing of his statement, at once passed resolutions, declaring that he never furnished them a man or a dollar, and that they "desire to escape the ignominy of a suspicion of even the faintest sympathy with the man who declares that loyalty to a republic is a meaningless and indefinite term."

It is the intention of the President to assign to active duty in the field every military officer of every grade who is fit for service. This will remove hundreds of "able bodied" officers in Washington and other cities, and fill their places by those who, by wounds or sickness, have been rendered unable to perform active duty. This should have been done months ago. Some of our most experienced and capable officers are occupying mere bureaucratic positions, while hosts of incompetents are doing service—or undoing it—in the field. We are not blessed with an over-abundance of military genius; but if the right men could be put, everywhere in the right place, the war would very soon assume a different and more hopeful phase.

WAR WORK IN SUMMER TIME.—A recent article in the Richmond Examiner prophesied that the campaign and the war would culminate during the present month, and that a rebel victory would end the war, as the Union troops could not operate in the South after June. Jeff. Davis seems to throw out the same idea in his message, when he predicts that the falling waters and the increasing heats of Summer will complete our discomfiture. These rebels must have short memories. The heats of last Summer, which were very intense, did not put a stop upon our operations, either in the East or West. June, July, August and September were the four battle months of the year, and were only equalled by the Winter month of December, which witnessed three of our greatest battles. At the beginning of June the battle of Fair Oaks was fought, and the terrible series of battles on the Peninsula, together with General Fremont's campaign in the Shenandoah valley, followed—not to speak of the naval battle above Memphis, and the occupation of that city on the 6th, the battle on James Island (S. C.) on the 16th, and many actions in Mississippi. On the 1st of July the battle of Malvern Hill was fought, and there was an engagement of respectable size almost every day in the month. In August came the great and severe Virginia campaign of Gen. Pope. In September was the Maryland campaign of General McClellan, the Kentucky campaign of General Buell, and some of the hardest fighting of the war, including Rosecran's victory of Iuka, in Mississippi. All this, beside heavy campaigning in Arkansas, and indeed all over the South. If we have as much hard work in the hot months of this year as we had in those of last, neither the rebel army nor ours will complain of idleness.

"THE COMBAT DEEPENS."—The Richmond Enquirer concludes a long leader under this caption, as follows:

The alternative then is before us, and the decision is near; we are either to be a victorious and famous people, a support to our friends and a terror to our enemies; or else—may God be between us and harm!—an overpressed nationality, one of the mendicant peoples of the earth, hawking about our grievances and sores, to the disgust of mankind, and invoking execrations (in vain!) against our masters and owners, the Yankees! In vain, for nobody heeds an "oppressed nationality;" its grievances are a bore; its words are not believed; success has the ear of the world, and tells its own story and its victim's too; our portion through all time will be not only beggary, but contempt.

This is the truth. Would that every man at the South this day laid it to heart. Surely there would not be a straggler from his post; not an officer, on pretence of duty or health, strutting idle in our streets. It will be no credit hereafter to boast having been in all the "battles of the war," from Manassas to Murfreesboro. That was child's play; the battle of the war is to come, this month, or next month, or is now raging along the whole line. Pity the mother whose son will not be in that melee, and yet live to tell it!

ESPECIAL ATTENTION is respectfully directed to our exclusive manufacture of the renowned GOLDEN BALSAM, a preparation compounded by the celebrated Dr. Le Riche, of Paris, and which we pledge our integrity to be a speedy and efficacious remedy for Syphilis, in all its stages. For obvious reasons, we cannot obtain for publicity testimonials as to its efficacy; but among the innumerable cases in which it has been administered, we have never known one instance of its failure. The celebrity this medicine has acquired is of itself a sufficient guarantee of its intrinsic merit, and that it is in reality a boon to suffering humanity.

Sent by Express to any part of the Continent, Wholesale and Retail.

Price, $50 a dozen or $5 per Bottle.

DENTAL CARDS.—Certificates received by Dr. W. KOEHLER from his former places of residence:

This recommendation is due Dr. W. KOEHLER, a Practical Dentist, for his skill, thorough professional attainments, and complete knowledge of the science of Dentistry. I cheerfully recommend Dr. Koehler to all who may need or desire his professional services. J. S. TITUS, M.D.
Placerville, May 5th, 1860.

I have known Dr. KOEHLER as a practicing Dentist in this place for some time past. He is thoroughly versed in his profession, and I would cordially recommend him to those desirous of obtaining the services of an educated and skillful Dentist. JOHN COOKE, M.D.
Placerville, May 5th, 1860.

MOKELUMNE HILL, August 30, 1860.
Having had occasion to employ several operators to construct a set of artificial teeth for me, but without having derived any benefit from them, I at last consulted Dr. W. KOEHLER, to whom I gave my case for another trial. He made me a full set of teeth, which I am now wearing with all the comfort and satisfaction desired, and I would recommend him to all in need of the services of a skillful Dentist.

Scald Head Cured.

RICHMOND, IND., May 1, 1859.
Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co.—Gents: It is with pleasure that I write you, and let you know the result of DR. MOTT'S PILLS on my daughter. Some three years ago she was troubled with Scald Head, and the head was one mat of sores. We tried almost everything we could think of, without being cured. I got DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS and used them as directed, and in six weeks she was entirely restored. Yours, &c., JAMES JOHNSON.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Grand Jury, consis ing of Henry Law, Foreman, Wm. Cree, W Burch, Wm. Sherlock, B. P. Cardwell, A Hurgren and Wm. Palmer, was sworn an charged by the Court, and retired for the i vestigation of criminal matters. Other juro were excused until Wednesday morning ten o'clock.

On account of the absence of W. C. John son, Prosecuting Attorney, W. L. Hill, Esq was appointed special prosecuting officer t the Court for the term.

The law and equity dockets were called order, and several cases disposed of.

RECORDER'S COURT.—This week opens very brisk in the Recorder's Court. Yester day seven cases were disposed of; and w grieve to say that they were all arraigned f being drunk and disorderly, but rejoice tha each offender was able to pay his fine. Sever cases make a good commencement, and w cannot predict how the week's business wil end, but rather incline to the belief tha the city treasury will be considerably re plenished.

CORRECTION.—The Times, yesterday, stated that the Almatia crossed the Columbia bar on Tuesday the 26th inst., and came up the river to Birnie's Slough in company with the Samuel Merritt. Capt. Williams of the latter bark desires us to mention that his vessel did not cross the bar till Wednesday, and then the Almatia was not in the river, nor did he see her till she arrived in Portland. He saw a sail far astern as he came up from Astoria, but could not make her out, as bark, schooner or small boat.

The steamer Brother Jonathan was advertised to leave San Francisco on Sunday, the 7th, at 10 o'clock A. M. She may therefore be expected here this evening or to-morrow morning.

"THE DRUNKARD."—Don't forget the great play of "The Drunkard" to-night, at the Theatre. The common play of "A Drunkard" is not an uncommon sight in this town, but to-night may be seen "what comes of it," and a lesson given how to avoid it; hence, we hope that many will go and see it, as some will probably be benefited, none injured, and all well entertained and delighted.

A SINGER GONE.—A canary bird is advertised as lost, and a reward of $10 offered.—See advertisement.

The Oregon Steam Navigation Company are setting up at the Cascades two fine locomotives, for the use of the Dalles and Deschutes Railroad.

WHAT BANKS HAS WON.—Louisianians say that in taking possession of the sugar producing region of that State, General Banks has inflicted a blow that will be felt more sensibly than if he had moved northward and captured Vicksburg. A correspondent says:

The successful march of our army up to New Iberia gave it easy access to Opelousas and Washington, on the Courtableau. On gaining control of this stream General Banks virtually holds the sugar producing region of Louisiana. The country bordering on the Teche, the Courtableau and neighboring bayous and lakes is devoted almost entirely to the culture of sugar cane, to which it is better adapted than any other region of the South. The planters in this section of the State had flattered themselves with the hope that their isolated position and the difficulty of access from the Gulf coast would prevent the desolating effects of the war from reaching them.—Hence, it is said they have taken a less active part in the rebellion than others in more exposed localities. Heretofore their remoteness from the scene of hostilities has protected them from any interference with their labor system; but now they are about to realize the full effect of the war. It must not be understood from this that the people in this part of the State have been indifferent to the war; for it is well known that they have given as much aid and comfort to the rebels in arms as has come from any other section of the South.—This previous security has caused but little change in the management of their plantations, and their crops of cane and cotton will be nearly equal to former years, if no neglect arises in consequence of the military occupation of the country. This will probably be prevented by Governor Shepley, who left a few days since for the purpose of establishing civil government as rapidly as the army advance.

THE STRENGTH OF THE PEOPLE.—The power of the President has not been developed more rapidly than the whole governmental energy of the people has. It may well be doubted whether it has not lagged behind and lost rather than gained in its relative importance. The nation has roused itself to defend its life, and has demanded more of vigor in its organs. When one stands up to strike down an assailant, the muscles of his arm will swell as he lifts it, but it does not follow that the strong man is not as much the master of his arm as he was before. The President is our arm, and we have made him bigger with our will, but that has not caused him to be stronger than we are. We are as able to make him little again as we ever were. —We have compared the administration of a free government to a staff in the hands of the people. When the fellows sprang upon him just now from out of the bush, Jonathan looked about him for a stouter stick to lay about him with. This is how he comes to have a stouter government. He sometimes wishes that the cudgel were even thicker. It has not yet occurred to him to be afraid of the big club he carries.—Springfield Republican.

Coughs, Colds, Influenza.—To all who suffer from these complaints, and wish to find a permanent remedy, we say, try DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM, a medicine which contains no Opium, and has cured the worst cases among our own citizens.

EXPECTORANT

AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG and found such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold (and there is no place on the civilized globe where they have not been sold) that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from

Diseases of the Lungs & Throat,

inducing and ending in CONSUMPTION many of whom may not have used this remedy that they should be all w[illegible] ed to read of some of the cases where its influence has been useful in relieving complaints from which they are suffering The EXPECTORANT

Operates immediately upon the Disease,

SUBDUING AND RAPIDLY ERADICATING IT,

while the SANATIVE PILLS by preserving regularity in the Bowels and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former

Attention is asked to the following Certificates selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors

Upper Uwchlan, Chester Co Pa Sept 1, 1858

Dr D JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT After taking it for about three months I was entirely cured.

NATHAN PENNYPACKER

Astoria, Long Island Jan 1 1860

L W TINELLI Esq New York—Sir As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science when at your friendly suggestion I began the well known (but not enough known) EXPECTORANT of Dr Jayne of Philadelphia Three or four days after having commenced to take it my cough had nearly subsided the expectoration was easy and the breathing quite free

I am now [illegible] and my general health has never been better

[illegible] with esteem, [illegible] servant and friend

J B MONTE

Winfield Tuscarawas Co O May 1 1860

DR D JAYNE—Dear Sir One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER after having been given up by the hopes of recovery During the attack she had a number of convulsions She is now [illegible] well.

J H COFFMAN

Burlington, Bradford Co Pa. July 23 1856

DR D JAYNE—Dear Sir My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION For two years he was not able to labor [illegible] was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles of the one and PILLS was completely cured and is now able to labor every day.

JOHN HENRY

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr Henry the medicine for his son and know that the statement is true

SEWING MACHINES

Are unequaled by any for beauty, simplicity of construction and efficiency in working and will do

IN A PERFECT MANNER,

A greater range of work than any other machine

The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood iron brass or steel used in its construction but by the manner in which these materials are put together and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money, but if you want either for your own use, you wish an article which can be relied upon, and you will pay accordingly

LADD & WEBSTER'S

use a straight needle curved ones are liable to break

They make a tight lock stitch alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be ravelled

Every machine is sent from our office threaded and with work under the needle ready for operation accompanied with such explicit printed instructions as will enable persons who may never have seen a machine to teach themselves

DR. BAKER'S

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use I can most sincerely say that I have never known any however delicate to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it to try it for the following diseases If they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels try a dose of Pain Panacea internally bathe externally over the parts affected and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain

If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison and heal the wound in a short time

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely and take a dose of it internally morning noon and night it will not only cure the pain but will remove the cause of the disease

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve the pain and the swelling will be reduced

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time It will stop the pain instantly

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne

If you feel chilly or cold as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time

CHARLES BARRETT'S

A Mysterious Lodger.

(Concluded.)

We left the house and proceeded along Stockton street towards Happy Valley. For ten minutes not a word was spoken. Several times he seemed on the point of speaking, but he as often checked himself.

"Unless, I may call you one, I have not a friend in California," he at length began, placing his hand upon my shoulder. I bowed, but made no reply.

"You do not speak, he continued, observing my silence. "I am to understand, I presume, that you are not to be made an exception."

"To be frank with you, Jansen," I replied, "there is a certain mystery about your movements calculated to give rise to suspicions anything but favorable."

"Of what nature?" inquired my companion.

"That you are a gambler, or even worse," I bluntly replied.

He smiled as he replied, "Yes, yes, I see; yet the suspicion wrongs me."

"Make it appear so," I answered "and you shall not want a friend."

"Promise that you will not divulge what I may tell you, or attempt by word or act to thwart me in the accomplishment of a purpose to which I have pledged my soul," he said, looking me earnestly in the face, "and you shall have the proof you require."

"If your purpose is not criminal, I promise; if otherwise keep your secret," was my answer.

"Tis what you would do, or any other man worthy of the name."

"Then I promise; here is my hand."

"Listen," he resumed, taking my arm and walking slowly on. "I have a twin sister. We were born in Georgia; our parents were the possessors of a hundred slaves, with a plantation large enough to give all employment. When we were fourteen our father died. At the age of sixteen my sister became converted, during a religious revival, and six months after, in the face of the determined opposition of my mother, ran away with and married a young preacher, to whose eloquence the revival owed its origin. Learning they were married, my good mother sent for them, and they returned to receive her blessing. The plantation was placed in charge of my sister's husband, and he relinquished the Gospel. He frequently visited New Orleans, and other of the large Southern cities, during the first year of his marriage, but the circumstances excited no suspicion.

"To be brief, before two years elapsed, the large estate left by our father was swept from us, and we were almost bankrupt. He had induced my mother to mortgage the plantation, with the view, he said, of purchasing more negroes to work it, but the money was squandered, and the slaves we had were secretly sold by fives and tens, until less than a dozen remained. When asked to explain by my mother, he had no excuse to offer. In the midst of this great grief, another wife of Mayhew—that was the villain's name—suddenly made her appearance at the plantation. Learning the residence of her husband, but knowing nothing of his second marriage, she had left South Carolina to meet him. My poor sister was heart broken. Mayhew, to escape prosecution, fled from the State. His first wife was sent to the madhouse, and in three months my poor old mother was laid in the church yard. My grief-bowed sister—but I will not speak of her. Turning the wreck of our property into money, I started in pursuit of the scoundrel who had dealt such havoc with our peace. Through a dozen States I tracked him, and returned with my mission of vengeance unaccomplished. One year ago, by accident, I learned he was in California.

"As soon as I recovered from a serious illness under which I was laboring, I took passage for this State. I arrived six months ago. He is here, for I have seen him, and he cannot escape me now! He is even in this city, but little dreams that the pistol is shotted to send him to the great reckoning. I have made few acquaintances, having no wish to implicate others in a work of blood which must be mine alone. Last night I followed him from the El Dorado, where he spends most of his time, to a house on Powell street. He has visited it frequently of late, and to-day I understand that he is paying his addresses to a widow lady of wealth residing there. But he will not marry her, for another week shall not see him alive! You now know all. Have I one friend in California?"

To see so much manhood exhibited by a beardless boy, surprised me beyond expression. I offered the brave little fellow my hand, and he felt that he was answered. In silence we returned to our lodgings. Bidding Jansen good night, I stepped into Smith's room for a moment. I found the old gentleman somewhat agitated. He had lost a valuable diamond pin that day, and freely intimated that the "slick young cuss," as he denominated Jansen, had stolen it. I so strenuously endeavored to dissipate the impression, that I verily believe he felt inclined to transfer the odium of the supposed theft to me. That night Smith snored louder than usual.

Three days after, I met Jansen in the street, and learned that he had taken rooms on Powell street. I did not require the reason—I thought I knew it. The next day I again met him. His face was unusually pale, yet he said he had not felt better for years. "There is to be a wedding on Powell street to-morrow, at least so Mayhew says, but there will be no bride-groom! Do you understand?" He placed his finger significantly to his lips, and we separated.

At eight o'clock the next evening, as Isaac Mayhew was mounting the steps of the house to which Jansen had traced him six days before, a pistol ball pierced his heart, and he dropped dead upon the pavement. Some unaccountable influence had drawn me to the neighborhood, and hearing the report of a pistol, Jansen's words flashed through my mind, and I started with a dozen others, in the direction of the tragedy. Before I arrived on the spot quite a crowd had collected. The body of Mayhew was lying upon the side-walk, and over it in speechless agony, stood the widow who was to have been a bride.

"Who saw this?" inquired a policeman.

"I heard the report of a pistol," said one of the crowd, "and a minute after, saw a man enter that building on the opposite side of the street."

In an instant the officer followed by the excited spectators, started for the house. Springing through the crowd, I reached the side of the policeman, and as he knocked at the door I was at his elbow. I felt that Jansen was there. The door was quickly opened, and a well dressed lady calmly inquired the object of the visit.

"We are looking for a man who a few minutes since, committed a murder across the street," said the officer.

"And do you expect to find him in my room, sir?" returned the lady.

"No madam," returned the policeman, rather politely for one of his calling; "but I will glance through your appartment merely as a matter of form, before proceeding to the other portions of the house."

The officer entered, I closely following. While he was examining the room, I for the first time obtained a fair view of the lady's face. Involuntarily, I threw up my hands in amazement. She detected the movement, and quick as thought, placed her finger to her lips. In a moment I comprehended all. Richard Jansen stood before me. No—Richard no longer, now that she had slain the destroyer of her peace, but Martha Jansen, my former fellow lodger. Heavens, what a discovery! And for me to have been so confoundedly blind, too, but no matter. The policeman searched but did not find the murderer.

The next day I met Martha on Montgomery street. She smiled and bowed, and I confess I thought her an exceedingly pretty woman.

A week after she quietly left the State for Georgia, where she is now residing. After the sailing of the steamer I received a note through the post office from Martha. She explained all, and thanked me for the assistance I had rendered her, and the kindness shown to her imaginary twin-brother, Richard.

When I informed Smith, as I did one evening, that the "sleek young cuss" whom he had viewed with so much suspicion was a woman, he waited for me to repeat the assertion, and then checked himself in the act of calling me a liar. The news excited Smith, and he went to bed drunk that night, and snored as he had never snored before.

She who was to have been the third wife of Mayhew still lives in San Francisco. She was married in August last. I met her in the street a few days ago. How vividly the sight of her face brought to mind the incidents I have related! She will read this little story, perhaps, and learn for the first time, why she did not become the wife of Mayhew, the bigamist.

The rebels, the other day, captured a passenger train on the railroad between Murfreesboro' and Nashville, consisting of a first-class locomotive and seven cars, in which were between forty and fifty officers of various grades from Colonel downwards, two companies of the Tenth Michigan regiment, fifteen sutlers, a large army mail, and several bags of official documents, together with a quantity of express goods. Every man upon the train was marched off to Dixie. By this single dash the rebels secured as many officers as they could hope to capture in a good sized battle, and a large amount of valuable information in the army mail concerning our movements.

LEGAL.

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all nett profits (less $600) derived from any source whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, hired help, Rents, Drayage, &c., necessary to carry on his business; but no farmer, merchant, mechanic, or any person, has a right to deduct his own labor as so much expense from his income.

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st, 1862, everybody should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year. And as many sources of income, such as Dividends and Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks, interest, &c., (they having already paid the income tax,) are not again taxed. It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income, that there may be no dispute with the Assessor.

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year, and pay the tax on the amount less $600.

A man may, outside of his business, spend all and even more than his profits in the business; nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600. Also with a salary, all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses consume it all.

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May, 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June, 1863. And any sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June, as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.

Lands claimed under the Donation Laws, will be excluded from the sales.

No "Mineral Lands," or tracts containing mineral deposits, are to be offered at the public sales, such mineral lands being hereby expressly excepted and excluded from sale, or other disposal, pursuant to the requirements of the Act of Congress approved February 14, 1853, entitled "An Act to amend an Act to create the office of Surveyor General of the public lands in Oregon, and to provide for the survey, and to make donations to the settlers of the said public lands," approved September 27, 1850.

Lands appropriated by law for the use of schools, military, and other purposes, or lands on which applications have been filed under the provisions of the Homestead Law, will be excluded from the sales.

The offering of the above lands will be commenced on the days appointed, and will proceed in the order in which they are advertised, until the whole shall have been offered, and the sales thus closed; but no sale shall be kept open longer than two weeks, and no private entry of any of the lands will be admitted until after the expiration of the two weeks.

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, this twentieth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

By the President: ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
J. M. EDMUNDS,
Commissioner of the General Land Office.

NOTE.—Under the regulations of the department, as heretofore and now existing, no payment can be made for advertising proclamations except to such publishers as are specially authorized to publish by the Commissioner of the General Land Office. 24-13

HELMBOLD'S
Genuine Preparation.

'HIGHLY CONCENTRATED'
Compound Fluid
EXTRACT BUCHU,
A POSITIVE AND SPECIFIC REMEDY
FOR DISEASES OF THE
BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL
AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCEROUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,
Loss of Memory,
Weak Nerves,
Horror of Disease,
Dimness of Vision,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,
Hot Hands,
Dryness of the Skin,
Loss of Power,
Difficulty of Breathing,
Trembling,
Wakefulness,
Pain in the Back,
Flushing of the Body,
Eruptions on the Face,
Pallid Countenance.

These symptoms if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,
IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION."

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS.

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that

THE CONSTITUTION,
once affected by Organic Weakness,

Requires the Aid of Medicine,

to strengthen and invigorate the system, which

invariably does.

A Trial will Convince the most Skeptical.

FEMALES! FEMALES!! FEMALES!!
OLD OR YOUNG,
Single, Married or contemplating Marriage

IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO FEMALES, the Extract of Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhea or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the Sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE!

No Family should be without it.

TAKE NO MORE BALSAM, MERCURY, OR UNPLEASANT MEDICINE FOR UNPLEASANT AND DANGEROUS DISEASES.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH
CURES SECRET DISEASES,

In all their Stages, At Little Expense;
Little or no Change in Diet; No inconvenience,
AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes a frequent desire and gives strength to Urinate, thereby Removing Obstructions, preventing and curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in the class of Diseases, and expelling all Poisonous, diseased and worn out matter.

THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS
Who have been the victims of Quacks

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "POISON" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage.

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu

For all Affections and Diseases of the URINARY ORGANS, whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and

NO MATTER OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it is certain to have the desired effect in Diseases for which it is recommended.

Evidence

of the most Responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines.

Certificates of Cures

From Eight to Twenty Years standing, with names known to science and fame.

"PHYSICIANS," PLEASE "NOTICE."

We make no "secret" of "Ingredients." HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, Juniper Berries, selected with great care by a competent Druggist. Prepared in vacuo, by H. T. HELMBOLD, Practical and Analytical Chemist, and Sole Manufacturer of Helmbold's Genuine Preparations.

AFFIDAVIT.

Personally appeared before me, an Alderman of the city of Philadelphia, H. T. HELMBOLD, who being duly sworn, doth say his preparations contain no narcotic, no mercury, or other injurious drugs, but are purely vegetable.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855.
DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, MISS., Feb. 7, 1856.
BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, IA., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman. [illegible] relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; [illegible] one half the bottle made me completely well. Your [illegible] the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, [illegible] Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's [illegible]

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is [illegible] its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. [illegible] human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.
DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that [illegible] not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from [illegible] and calls herself well.
Yours, with gratitude [illegible] OF SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not [illegible] have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made [illegible] in the world, and its cures [illegible] speak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia [illegible]
